DOCG MORELLINO DI SCANSANO

The Morellino di Scansano doc was first produced in 1978, but the wine tradition of this place is very remote and certainly goes back to Etruscan times. Already in 1813 the "Maioresse of the municipality of Scansano" in a letter to the deputy prefect of the arrondissement of Grosseto, said that the previous year 5.540 hl of wine was produced in the region of Scansano which a greater part was of high quality. "The wines produced in Magliano and Scansano are excellent and in a few places, the wine is produced with such a particular quality" says G. Barbini in a study on the development of agriculture in the province of Grosseto, dated 1884.

The Morellino di Scansano doc was created in 1978, covering the hilly areas between the River Albegna and River Ombrone, all located in the province of Grosseto.

The types are: Morellino di Scansano and Morellino di Scansano reserve.

From the harvest of 2007 Morellino di Scansano is proud of its docg.
